

William S. Hart Union High School District
Recognized for Commitment to Educational Excellence

Parent and Student Empowerment (PASE) presents:

Preventing Academic Burnout: Recognizing the warning signs

Wednesday, January 25, 2017

Arroyo Seco Junior High School MPR from 6:30 pm to 8 pm

27171 N. Vista Delgado Dr., Valencia, CA, 91354

Life in the 21st century is highly competitive and demanding, especially on our children.

Result? Burnout.....Are we able to recognize the signs?

Do our kids have the tools to deal with burnout?

Join Dan Jordan, Infotainer, as he presents “The Magic to Balancing Stress”

Don't miss out on this free event! Discover ways to improve personal lives.

Participants will be inspired to infuse humor, creativeness, and playfulness into their lives, thus experiencing less stress, illness and increased productivity.

These valuable techniques will benefit both students and parents.

Dan, the Magic Man, is an accomplished platform professional speaker, and has delivered his message to such prestigious groups as; the Los Angeles County Superior Courts, International Brotherhood of Magicians, Arizona Court Reporters Association, Worksource California, Numatic Engineering, Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, California Highway Patrol, Comedy Magic Workshop (Las Vegas, Los Angeles, Virginia), S.A.N.E. (Substance Abuse Narcotics Education), Ciba Corporation, Montana-Law Enforcement Information and Records Association, and numerous civic organizations.

For questions or additional information regarding P.A.S.E., contact Clarissa Resella at cresella@hartdistrict.org or Mita Meza at meza@hartdistrict.org. For more information about Dan Jordan, you can visit his website at www.InfoMagic.Biz